the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1575-1875 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Katharine Baetjer, 2009
Covering the period between the late 16th century through to the third quarter of the 19th century this book features paintings by English Scottish Welsh and Irish artists which are part of the collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art

Tate British Artists William Vaughan, 2002 Constable is one of the best known and most popular of British painters His fresh depictions of the English countryside have often been taken as the genuine and most authentic record of his native land Yet there is far more to Constable than the celebration of local scenery This book draws on recent research to show how profound the artist's perception of nature was and how innovative he was as a painter British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of deaccessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting John
