C.S. Lewis and Christian Postmodernism Kyoko Yuasa, 2016-04-19 Employing a postmodernist literary approach this book identifies C S Lewis both as an antimodernist and as a Christian postmodernist who tells the story of the gospel to twentieth and twenty first century readers Lewis is popularly known as an able Christian apologetic writer talented in explaining Christian beliefs in simple logical terms But his fictional works feature expressions that erect ambiguous borders between nonfiction and fiction an approach equivalent to those typical in postmodernist literature Whereas postmodernist literature is full of many small micronarratives that deconstruct the Great Story Lewis's fictional world is the reverse of this in his world multiple and small stories are chosen but they also ultimately express the Story that transcends human understanding Lewis's approach reflects both his opposition to modernist philosophy which embraces solidified interpretation and his criticism of modernized Christianity Lewis's fictional works focus on the history of interpretation and deconstructing interpretations of the previous age seek a new model for interpretation Both C S Lewis and postmodern writers force us to choose between alternative interpretations
