Time Regained:

Time Regained Delia Ungureanu, 2021-10-07 Awarded the Tudor Vianu Prize for Literary and Cultural Theory by the National Museum of Romanian Literature Over the past 30 years the fields of world literature and world cinema have developed on parallel but largely separate tracks with little recognition of their underlying similarities and the ways that each can learn from the other Time Regained does not move from literature to cinema but exists simultaneously in both fields The 7 filmmakers selected here Andrei Tarkovsky Akira Kurosawa Martin Scorsese Ra l Ru z Wong Kar Wai Stephen Daldry and Paolo Sorrentino are themselves also writers or people with literary training and they produce a new type of world cinema thanks to their understanding of the world simultaneously through literature and film In the process their films produce new readings of literary texts that world literature studies wouldn't have been able to achieve with its own instruments Time Regained examines how filmmakers build on literature to reconfigure the world as a landscape of dreams and how they use film to reinvent the narrative techniques of the authors on whom they draw The selected filmmakers draw inspiration from French surrealists modernists Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf and Marguerite Yourcenar and predecessors such as Dante and Cao Xueqin In the process these filmmakers cross the borders between film and literature nation and world dream and reality

Reading Modernism's Readers Helen Tyson, 2024-07-31 Reading Modernism's Readers Virginia Woolf Psychoanalysis and the Bestseller examines the scene of reading in modernist psychoanalytic and popular writing from the early twentieth century Focusing on the writing of Virginia Woolf and reading her novels alongside writing by Marcel Proust Sigmund Freud James Strachey Ethel M Dell Melanie Klein Marion Milner and others this book challenges our prevailing critical assumptions about modernist reading Reading Modernism's Readers argues that the modernist scene of reading reveals some of our culture's most powerful and enduring fantasies about the role of literature in psychic social and political life Reading modernism alongside psychoanalysis and the bestseller this book aims not only to intervene in debates about modernism but also to address its legacies in contemporary literature and in the context of increasingly urgent questions about how and why we read today

The Event Ilaï Rowner, 2015 What is an event From a philosophical perspective events are irregular occurrences moments of change and interruption categorized by human perception language and thought While philosophers have pored over the subject of events extensively in recent years The Event Literature and Theory seeks to ground it What is literature's approach to the event How does literature produce and give testimony to events Ilaï Rowner's study not only revisits some of the most important thinkers of our time including Maurice Blanchot Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida and Martin Heidegger it also develops a critical approach to literature that questions the meaning of the literary event through examinations of literary works by Marcel Proust Louis Ferdinand Celine and T S Eliot Rowner offers a new method of thinking about the particular characteristics of the event within literary works and defines the creative value of literature as the aspiration toward the un happening within the happening In this study the experience of literature as an act of both writing and reading becomes the struggle to capture the excessive movement of the event while also revealing the creative energy within that work of literature

Learning to Live: Six Essays on Marcel Proust Maurizio Ferraris, 2020-06-22 In this collection of essays Maurizio Ferraris explores the world portrayed in Marcel Proust's In Search of Lost Time. He ponders how memory is tied to self-identification and knowledge how the passage of time is only perceptible after it has passed and how life ultimately is accurately portrayed in literature in ways that were seen as inconceivable in our youth. Running throughout the book is the sense that memory is all we are, we are what we remember or what others remember of us.

What Color Is the Sacred? Michael Taussig, 2009-05 Playful, enthralling and whip-smart Taussig's writing makes ingenious connections between ideas, thinkers and things. An extended meditation on the mysteries of colour and the fascination they provoke, this book is the next step on his remarkable intellectual path.

The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Tom Ribitzky, 2024-10-31 This book explores the novel as a response to the Platonic myth that narrates the rift at the core of our being. Eros is supposedly the consolation for this rift, but it expresses itself in the novel as the sigh of a world on its way out.
