We Can Become Perfect:

Who Says You Can't Be Perfect? Rev L. N. Ambridge, 2011-04-06 Sometimes we don't believe we can do what God tells us to do or be what God commands us to be simply because we don't understand what He wants. That's what happens for many Christians when they hear that famous command: Be ye therefore perfect even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Right away we fall back to our personal human interpretation and decide that perfect isn't really what Jesus meant because perfect represents to us a level and a quality that is way beyond our reach. Then we start feeling guilty about not being able to hit the mark so we start lowering the target. Now it's not perfection God wants but maturity. That's how we fix it up. Jesus didn't really mean for us to be perfect. He meant for us to be mature. Maturity is a process, a time line along which a person travels to reach a certain condition or state. That's not what perfection in God is. It's not a process, it's a decision. If we make the decision to be perfect as God has commanded, will He not make it possible for us to do that? When has God ever commanded us to do something or be something and not made the way for us to do that and be that? Has He not given the tools and the ministries to help us do that? Do we not have the presence of God, the leadership, teaching and example of Jesus, the guidance of His Word and the power of the Holy Spirit to do what God the Father through Jesus has commanded us to do? If God has given us all that and made it possible for us to honor His command and be perfect as He is perfect, who is qualified to say we can't do it? You Can Take It with You Linda Sommer, 2004. A Daily Devotional Guide For Doing God's Word. This one year devotional will take you on an adventure through hundreds of Scripture passages in the Old and New Testaments. Each day you will be assigned four passages throughout the Bible that pertain to topics such as seeking and obeying the Lord's will, living what you say and finding your place in the body of Christ. By dedicating just minutes a day to this unique book you will find yourself growing in God's Word, planting seeds of wisdom that will last a lifetime. About the author: Linda Sommer is the author of Around the Word in 365 Days and Sunrise Sunset.
