The Manacle:

Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age Christian Langer, 2021-09-20 Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age explores the political economy of deportations in New Kingdom Egypt ca 1550-1070 BCE from an interdisciplinary angle. The analysis of ancient Egyptian primary source material and the international correspondence of the time draws a comprehensive picture of the complex and far-reaching policies. The dataset reveals their geographic scope, economic and demographic impact in Egypt and abroad, as well as their interconnection with territorial expansion, international relations, and labour management. The supply chain, profiting institutions, and individuals in Egypt, as well as the labour tasks, origins, and the composition of the deportees, are discussed in detail. A comparative analytical framework integrates the Egyptian policies with a review of deportation discourses, as well as historical premodern and modern cases, and enables a global and diachronic understanding of the topic. The study is thus the first systematic investigation of deportations in ancient Egyptian history and offers new insights into Egyptian governance that revise previous assessments of the role of forced migration and unfree labour in ancient Egyptian society and their long-term effects. The Pinkerton Detective Series, 1886

The Manacle Mario J. Sagola, 1979 Somewhere in the city, a killer is hiding. No Exit. In a locked room deep in the heart of Little Italy, an elegant Englishman holds an elderly woman at gunpoint. Rosa Parma shows no fear! He holds the murder weapon, she the weapon of faith. Imprisoned together, they wait for the end of the manhunt; she for her family's return, for the fugitive. This is a chance encounter, a temporary sanctuary. A sanctuary is sacred. They both believe that. But for Mama Rosa, the family is more so. Above all, the fearless woman in the wheelchair will protect her own against the terror of the man with the Manacle.
