Reading Assessment to Promote Equitable Learning Laurie Elish-Piper, Mona W. Matthews, Victoria J. Risko, Victoria Risko, 2022-09-05 Many standard reading assessment approaches fail to capture the strengths and needs of students from diverse sociocultural linguistic and academic backgrounds From expert authors this book guides educators in planning and conducting meaningful equitable assessments that empower K 5 teachers and students inform responsive instruction and help to guard against bias The book s holistic view of reading encompasses areas from text comprehension and constrained skills to building trusting relationships and promoting students agency Twenty eight assessment strategies are explained in step by step detail including helpful implementation examples and 32 reproducible forms that teachers can download and print in a convenient 8 1 2 x 11 size

Learning to Read: An Integrated View from Research and Practice Terezinha Nunes, 2012-12-06 Literacy research has continued to develop at a rapid pace in these last five years of the millennium New ideas about how children learn to read have led to a better understanding of the causes of progress and failure in the mastery of literacy with repercussions for children s assessment and teacher education These new discoveries also allow teachers to transcend the old debates in reading instruction phonics versus whole language and offer the path to a synthesis At the same time research with teachers about their own implementation of methods and the development of their own knowledge about the teaching of literacy has produced a fresh analysis of the practice of literacy teaching Inspired by these developments teachers teacher educators and researchers worked together to produce this volume which promotes the integration of literacy research and practice

Teaching Struggling Readers Richard L. Allington, 1998 Collects thirty two articles for teachers of struggling readers covering such topics as literacy interventions diverse student needs motivation and ownership reading for meaning accuracy and fluency and family and community collaboration

Reading Problems Joyce Holt Jennings, JoAnne Schudt Caldwell, Janet W. Lerner, 2006 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali s pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty
